

Capitol Region Watershed District invites you to Green Infrastructure for Clean Water: Techniques for Urban Development and Redevelopment
Thursday, September 16, 2010, 8:30am – 4:30pm

Part of the Clean Water and Climate Adaptation Summit 2010 presented by Minnesota Landscape Arboretum, Minnehaha Creek Watershed District, and the Minnesota Climate Change Adaptation Working Group

Agenda

Keynote Presentations

Andrew Reese, Vice President, AMEC Earth and Environmental Division

Jim Patchett, Conservation Research Institute/ Conservation Design Forum

Afternoon Breakout Sessions

Policy and Planning: The Economic Argument for Green Infrastructure

- Maplewood Mall Stormwater Retrofits
- Murphy Warehouse Green Infrastructure Practices
- BMP Cost Effectiveness Analysis — Municipal Perspective

Technical: Green Infrastructure Techniques for Streets and Transit Corridors

- North St. Paul Green Streets Plan
- Stillwater Street Reconstruction
- Central Corridor Light Rail Transit — Sustainable Stormwater Management

Closing Session

Climate Adaptation: The Role of Green Infrastructure in the Face of an Uncertain Climate Raingardens on Pascal Street, Saint Paul.

Photo by Adrian Danciu

Scholarships available for Capitol Region Watershed District cities and planning councils.
Contact Anna for more information at 651-644-8888 or anna@capitolregionwd.org.

Capitol Region Watershed District

1410 Energy Park Drive, Ste. 4
St. Paul, MN 55108

Register today!

Scholarships available for Capitol Region Watershed District cities and planning councils.
Contact Anna at 651-644-8888 or anna@capitolregionwd.org.

Green Infrastructure for Clean Water: Techniques for Urban Development and Redevelopment Thursday, September 16, 2010, 8:30am – 4:30pm

Minnesota Landscape Arboretum
3675 Arboretum Drive
Chaska, MN 55318

More conference details at www.arboretum.umn.edu/symposiaandconferences.aspx

Shelf Cloud over Plymouth, MN.
Photo by Kurt Leuthold